THURSDAY, . . . MARCH 24, 1904.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce William J. Harris as a candidate for election to the office of Sheriff of Marion County, subject to the will of the people. Election in August, 1904.

We are authorized to announce David McNabb, of Whiteside, as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Marion County, subject to the will of the republican primary or convention.

We are authorized to announce Dan T. Thach as a candidate for trustee of Marion county, subject to the action of the republican party of the county.

We are authorized to announce A. W. Ferguson, of Pryor Cove, as candidate for the office of Sheriff of Marion County, subject to action of Republican convention.

THE Statesman Democrat remarks that the attitude of the federal soldiers regarding Senator Bate is "the truest and safest type of our national manhood." We consider this the best symptom of sanity that has appeared in that journal for some time. No old soldier on either side, who is worthy of the name of soldier, keeps up rancor and war venom. It is only those who never fired a shot, or who went "scotching to the rear" when they heard one fired, that keep up the animosity. "We presume this language is plain enough to be understood."

THE Tupelo, Miss., Review, Paul Wright, editor and manager, is a late comer to our exchange table. In addition to being a bright and newsy publication, it contains some fine specimens of artistic display of advertisements. The heading of the paper is especially remarkable for beautiful typography, and evidently set in the Review office. Editor Wright gives the News a bit of praise when he says "it is one of the very best weekly newspapers published in Tennessee."

THE Evening Journal, Gadsden, Ala., seems to be "coming." It has installed a Whitlock two revolution printing press with a capacity of 3,500 papers per hour, enlarged the paper to seven columns and added a large quantity of handsome type. The Journal is edited and published by W. S. Griffith, son of Capt. A. L. Griffith, formerly of Jasper.

WE truly regret to note that the Statesman Democrat has a menagerie in its office, for it boasts of its lions and tigers, and insects of recent origin called gold bugs, and candidly announces a monkey in connection with the show. With such divergency of attention paid ideas as well as pied type must be the rule and not the exception.

AMONG the new arrivals to our desk may be mentioned the Maryville, Tenn., Record, a new paper recently launched in that busy place. The Record in evidently out for business, and issued under the direction of an experienced newspaper man. We hope to see the Record every week, and therefore place it on our "ex" list.

The Rome Tribune says: "Bradstreet's has made the discovery that 84 per cent. of the merchants that failed during the year of 1903 did not advertise in the newspapers." And yet some men insist that advertising is not essential to success.—Marietta (Ga.) Journal.

UNTIL we see the peaches hanging lusciously within our grasp let us not flatter ourselves that we will have a mammoth crop.

Lost—$100,000 in the last score of years patching Washington county mudholes.—Johnson City Staff.

Eczema

How it roddens the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales! Some people call it better, milk crust or salt rheum.

The suffering from it is sometimes intense; local applications are resorted to, but they do not cure. It proceeds from humors inherited or acquired and persists until these have been removed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla positively removes them, has radically and permanently cured the worst cases, and is without an equal for all cutaneous eruptions.

Hood's PILLS are the best cathartic. Price 25 cents.

THE Statesman Democrat denies the "covert sneer" at our correspondents. What about this from its issue of March 4, 1904? "Except a few squeals from 'coon hollow' and 'eaglenest cove' emitted through the 'erficial origen' all opposition to the bond bill seems to have absolutely subsided." The Democrat needn't send us any cast off garments on account of losing its wagger but may ship them instead to its goldbug companion and mutual admirer, the 'Times' to clothe its monkey in.

WITH the chance for a position on a main line of railroad between Louisville, Ky., and Chattanooga, Sequachee ought to be considerably elated. Let us hope the event will surely come to pass.
